

Assist us to live, not die.

Please attend Parliament on 29th November to vote against the Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill.

Not Dead Yet UK is a network of disabled and terminally ill people who believe that, if the Bill is passed, people's lives will be ended prematurely, due to mistakes and abuse. Vulnerable lives will be at risk. No "safeguards" can guarantee them protection from coercion.

Evidence from the small number of places around the world that have legalised assisted suicide is deeply concerning. Significant numbers of people end their lives because they feel that they are a burden to their families or others. For example, in Oregon – a model often cited by UK assisted suicide campaigners – the latest official data¹ shows that 47% of people who had an assisted suicide said they were doing so because they were concerned that they were a "burden on family, friends/caregivers".

Hospice UK has identified that over 100,000² people are dying every year without access to the palliative care they need and the Government has said our NHS is "going through the biggest crisis in its history"³. Against this backdrop, now is not the time to legalise assisted suicide.

Not one organisation of disabled people has called for this Bill nor supports it. Please vote NO on 29th November.
