Newsletter 13th June, 2025 THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Dear Parishioners

Modern culture promotes an ideal of an independent, strong, self sufficient individual who is not afraid of taking on the powerful forces in the world and fighting for social justice. It is more than just politics and campaigning for sorting out the pot holes in the local roads. We are active members of the local communities, contribute to the charities, volunteer with the schools of our children etc. Unfortunately our busy lifestyle is taking its toll. That is why we need to have a support group. This is where we realise that we are not that independent, self sufficient and strong as the others would expect. We have our vulnerabilities and insecurities, and it is alright. I am following the EWTN social media and I am amazed how sociable pope Leo is. He continues to stick to his fellow Augustinian friars. Last week he visited the Augustinian monastery in Rome. Even a pope needs his support group and a safe space where he can recharge. Have you found one yet?

Fr Sebastian

FHC CERTIFICATES AND CAKE THIS WEEKEND!

We look forward to welcoming back our First Holy Communicants and families this weekend (OLOL group at 6pm Saturday Mass and Holy Name group at 9am Sunday Mass). Children are welcome to wear their formal dresses/attire too. Certificates will be handed out during the Masses and a special cake and drinks will be served afterwards.

KAYLEIGH'S SWEETS SALE – after the Saturday 6pm Mass this weekend at OLOL

To help fund her joining the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes as part of the Purpleshirts, Kayleigh Galvin will be selling sweets after Saturday's Mass. Please support if you can.

NEW MASS BOOKS AT HOLY NAME

Holy Name now has replaced all Mass books with the revised version. Whereas these used to be available at the end of each pew, parishioners can pick up a copy on their way in from the Church porch should they wish to follow the readings. Instead, the hymn books will now be available at the end of each pew.

A MEETING OF ALL HOLY NAME VOLUNTEERS - Wednesday June 18th 8.00pm at Holy Name

All Holy Name volunteers (musicians, sacristans, catechists, welcomers, Eucharist ministers, welcomers, readers, cleaners, flower arrangers, counters, social event organisers, etc.) are asked to attend a meeting in the Holy Name parish rooms on Wednesday June 18th at 8.00pm. In this meeting we'll discuss whether there are ways in which we can use our current groups of volunteers more effectively and we'll also share our plans to increase the number of volunteers at Holy Name. Please plan to attend this meeting - we'd love to hear your ideas about how we can optimise our approach to volunteering at Holy Name! See you on the 18th
